Section 2 - Membership dues must be current on any given show/event date to qualify for the member discount at shows/events.

ARTICLE II – Membership

Section 1 – New members are encouraged and welcomed at any time.

Section 2 – An Active Member in good standing is defined as: Any person(s) that has paid their Club Membership Dues and has not violated the Constitution, the Bylaws or Club rules.

Section 3 – Individual Membership is defined as: A Single Adult Member with one voting privilege

Section 4 – A family membership is defined as: A family consisting of children and grandchildren related to one or both of the main adult members on the membership application. Family Membership shall also extend to include adult children living in the same household attending school. This membership will have 2 adult voting privileges.

Section 5 – Individual Youth Membership is defined as: A Single Person under 18 years of age with parent/guardian signature and approval with no voting privileges.

Section 6 – Membership is non-transferrable, non-refundable, and is not prorated.

Section 7 – Any Active Member in good standing has privileges to any and all club activities and may use the arena at any time as long as no other Club activities are using it.

Section 8 – Membership may be revoked by a majority vote of all active Club members in good standing (The Membership) present at a regularly scheduled meeting if a member refuses to follow the Constitution or the Bylaws.

Possible grounds for membership revocation are, but not limited to:

- Misrepresentation or slander of the Club or The Membership.
- Disrespectful or disruptive behavior directed at the Club or any of The Membership.
- Misrepresentation of info to directly mislead The Membership to affect the voting outcome or decisions made by The Membership.

ARTICLE III – Terms of Office for Elected Officers

Section 1 – Officers and Board members shall be elected at the first regularly scheduled meeting of February with their term beginning immediately upon election. Terms that reach full length, as stated in the Constitution, end when a replacement is elected, or, in the case where their role no longer exists, at the first regularly scheduled meeting of February.

Section 2 – Officers and Board members elected in special election will finish the term of the Officer or Board member they replace. This does not count as a consecutive term if less than one year is left on the term.

Section 3 – Elections of Officers and Board members will be as follows:

- Vice President, Secretary or Secretary/Treasurer, and all Board members will be elected in odd years
- President, Treasurer, and all Board members will be elected in even years

ARTICLE IV – Officers

Section 1 – President: The President shall preside over all meetings and conduct club business. The President will be allowed to vote only when a majority decision cannot be reached, considered as an ex-officio member.

Section 2 – Vice-President: The Vice-President shall assume the duties as President in his/her absence.

Section 3 – Secretary: The secretary shall record and maintain accurate minutes of the organization, submit a monthly report and make records accessible to The Membership for review during monthly business meetings. He/she shall send out notices and correspondence as needed. He/she shall maintain an accurate listing of all The Membership to include physical addresses, email addresses and phone numbers.

Treasurer: The Treasurer shall maintain accurate financial records, submit a monthly report and make records accessible to The Membership for review during monthly business meetings.

Treasurer shall collect and receive all dues and other monies belonging to the Club and deposit said funds in the name of the Club at the bank chosen and approved by The Membership. He/she shall keep an itemized account of all monies received and all monies dispersed for payment of approved financial obligations. All financial activities will be paid by check from the Club's checking account after approval by The Membership or the Officers and Board. Two authorized Officers must sign all checks. There must be three Officers authorized to sign checks.

ARTICLE V – Board of Directors

Section 1 – The Board will consist of a minimum of two, maximum of four elected members.

Section 2 – The property, funds, and affairs of the club shall be disclosed to the Board members to assist them in being able to make knowledgeable decisions.

Section 3 – The Officers and Board shall take whatever action they deem necessary to carry out the day-to-day functions in the best interest of the Club. This includes, but is not limited to, planning and executing shows and events, making financial decisions regarding daily operations, and revoking membership. This does not include decisions regarding changes to the Constitution or Bylaws, or the purchase, construction of, or repairs of any Club owned or leased property in excess of $300.

Section 4 – Open meetings of the Officers and Board shall be announced to The Membership either by social media, email, or phone. At this meeting all club members are permitted to attend but have no right to vote. The Officers and Board reserved the right to hold closed meetings. For both open and closed meetings minutes and record of attendance are required. The minutes will be read at the next regular monthly meeting.

Section 5 – A sign in sheet shall be presented and used to validate who is in attendance at all meetings of the Club.

Section 6 – Meetings shall be conducted in accordance to Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 7 – An Officer or Board member, other than the President, shall be selected to monitor operation in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 8 – A majority vote of The Membership present is required to elect or remove an Officer or Board member.

Section 9 – Any action of the Officers and Board shall require a five-sixths majority vote of The Membership present at the meeting.

ARTICLE VI – Financials

Section 1 – Contracted repairs or construction bids must be announced and presented to The Membership before the meeting where it will be voted upon. This can be done via social media, email, phone or mail. A majority of votes from The Membership and a signed contract is required for all repairs/construction over $300. This must be done before work is started.

Section 2 – Any transaction greater than $300 regarding Club property, leased property, or normal operating expenses must be pre-approved by a majority vote of The Membership present at a meeting. Transactions less than the above amount may be approved by a majority vote of the Officers and Board, excluding President.

Section 3 – No member of the Club can conduct any business or financial agreement of behalf of the Club without approval as defined in article VI section 2.
